

NW Region CHNS and CHPs Report

July 2012

*All the CHNS worked on their upcoming school nurse workshops in August.

Cheria Lindsey, CHNS

Cheria provided a workshop at the education cooperative on TBI, Autism and other Disorders. She provided education on tobacco prevention at the workshop. She distributed SOS materials at MD offices in Harrison. She provided three CPR/AED/First Aid s for school personnel, two BLS trainings for health care providers and school nurses. She provided information on injury prevention at the workshops. She provided an update on the CHNS at the NW Region administrator's meeting. She attended the Suicide Prevention Gatekeeper training. She provided technical assistance to school nurses on communicable disease plans, workshops and other health issues.

Nancy Marsh, CHNS

Nancy hosted an Injury Prevention training and a Fetal Alcohol Syndrome training at NWA Education Cooperative. She attended the Suicide Prevention Gatekeeper training. She facilitated the Madison County Safety Baby Shower planning meeting. She participated in the Hearing Health Screening committee meeting. She developed a nursing CE packet for Aleecia Starkey's presentation, Side Effects of Medical Diagnosis that Impact Learning, the second level of the Traumatic Brain Injury trainings. She attended the Ronald McDonald Charities Advisory Board meeting. She facilitated the planning meet for the Madison County Teen Summit.

Miranda Curbow, CHNS

Miranda presented on anti-tobacco campaigns and heat related illnesses at the Scott County Health Education Coalition meeting. She attended the Suicide Prevention Gatekeeper training. She provided technical assistance on the tobacco clear the air campaign, grant opportunities, newsletters and articles on heat safety and county data.

Mary McCraw, CHNS

Mary provided three Heartsaver/AED training at the education cooperative. She provided BLS certification training to nurses. She educated on the harmful effects of tobacco and tobacco cessation at the trainings. Injury Prevention 101 training was also provided at the education cooperative. Mary participated in a workgroup to revise and update the BMI protocol, power point and manual.

Sarah Brisco, CHPS

Sarah participated in the Traumatic Brain Injury Workshop. She provided technical assistance to school nurses at Vandergrift School. She assisted the NW Arkansas Service Cooperative CHNS in preparing for the Back to School workshop. She has been involved in starting a wellness committee at the OUR Co-op for staff.